Alternative Grade Option – Spring 2020

In response to the COVID-19 crisis, for any or all Spring 2020 courses, students may receive the usual letter grades of A through F, or may opt for the new, temporary grading option of Satisfactory (S), Marginal Satisfactory (S-) or Unsatisfactory (U*), which do not impact GPA. The alternative grade option is noted on the transcript.

A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C- convert to an "S" and earns credit, not in GPA.
D+, D convert to an "S-" and earns credit, not in GPA.
F converts to a "U*" does not earn credit, not calculated in GPA.

AUTHENTICATION

Paper official transcripts may be prepared by the University or by our authorized third party processor, Parchment. Parchment is the only agent of the University authorized to issue an official transcript of a student's record outside of Enrollment Services. To prevent unauthorized duplication, Parchment security paper includes hidden seals and anti-copy coin rub features. The Parchment security paper also includes Anti-copy watermark and anti-photocopy technology that causes the words Unofficial Copy to appear when scanned/copied

Official transcripts are also sent electronically as PDF's, see cover page that accompanies the electronic transcript for authentication information and details.

The Office of Enrollment Services will re-validate any transcript for which the authenticity is questioned.
